I think it is up to you. I was just checking with the core team.

Do you have some time to talk this afternoon or tomorrow morning - I have a bunch of questions as I am trying to work on a schedule...let me know. Thanks.

Hi Sheila,
That time works for me. The past calls were for the entire technical team, mostly the contractors. Do you intend to include the contractors on these calls?

Subject: Bristol Bay technical calls - time preference?

All - As we discussed last week, I will set up recurring technical team calls. I would propose Thurs 1-2:30 for these calls. Please let me know if that is not a time you have available on a regular basis. Alternatively, we could have the call on a Monday. Let me know if you have a preference and I'll try to schedule when it suits most people. Thanks!
